"I don't care!"

Yes, Indeed I care!

Famine in East Africa: How you can help

Nearly half a million children in the Horn of Africa are at risk of dying from malnutrition and disease.

STORY HIGHLIGHTS

(CNN) — Eleven million people are facing a hunger crisis in the Horn

the problem

- 20 million children under 5 suffer from severe acute malnutrition
- a child dies every 6 seconds from malnutrition
- more than 24,000 a day, more than AIDs, Malaria and TB combined

AFRICA IN PERSPECTIVE

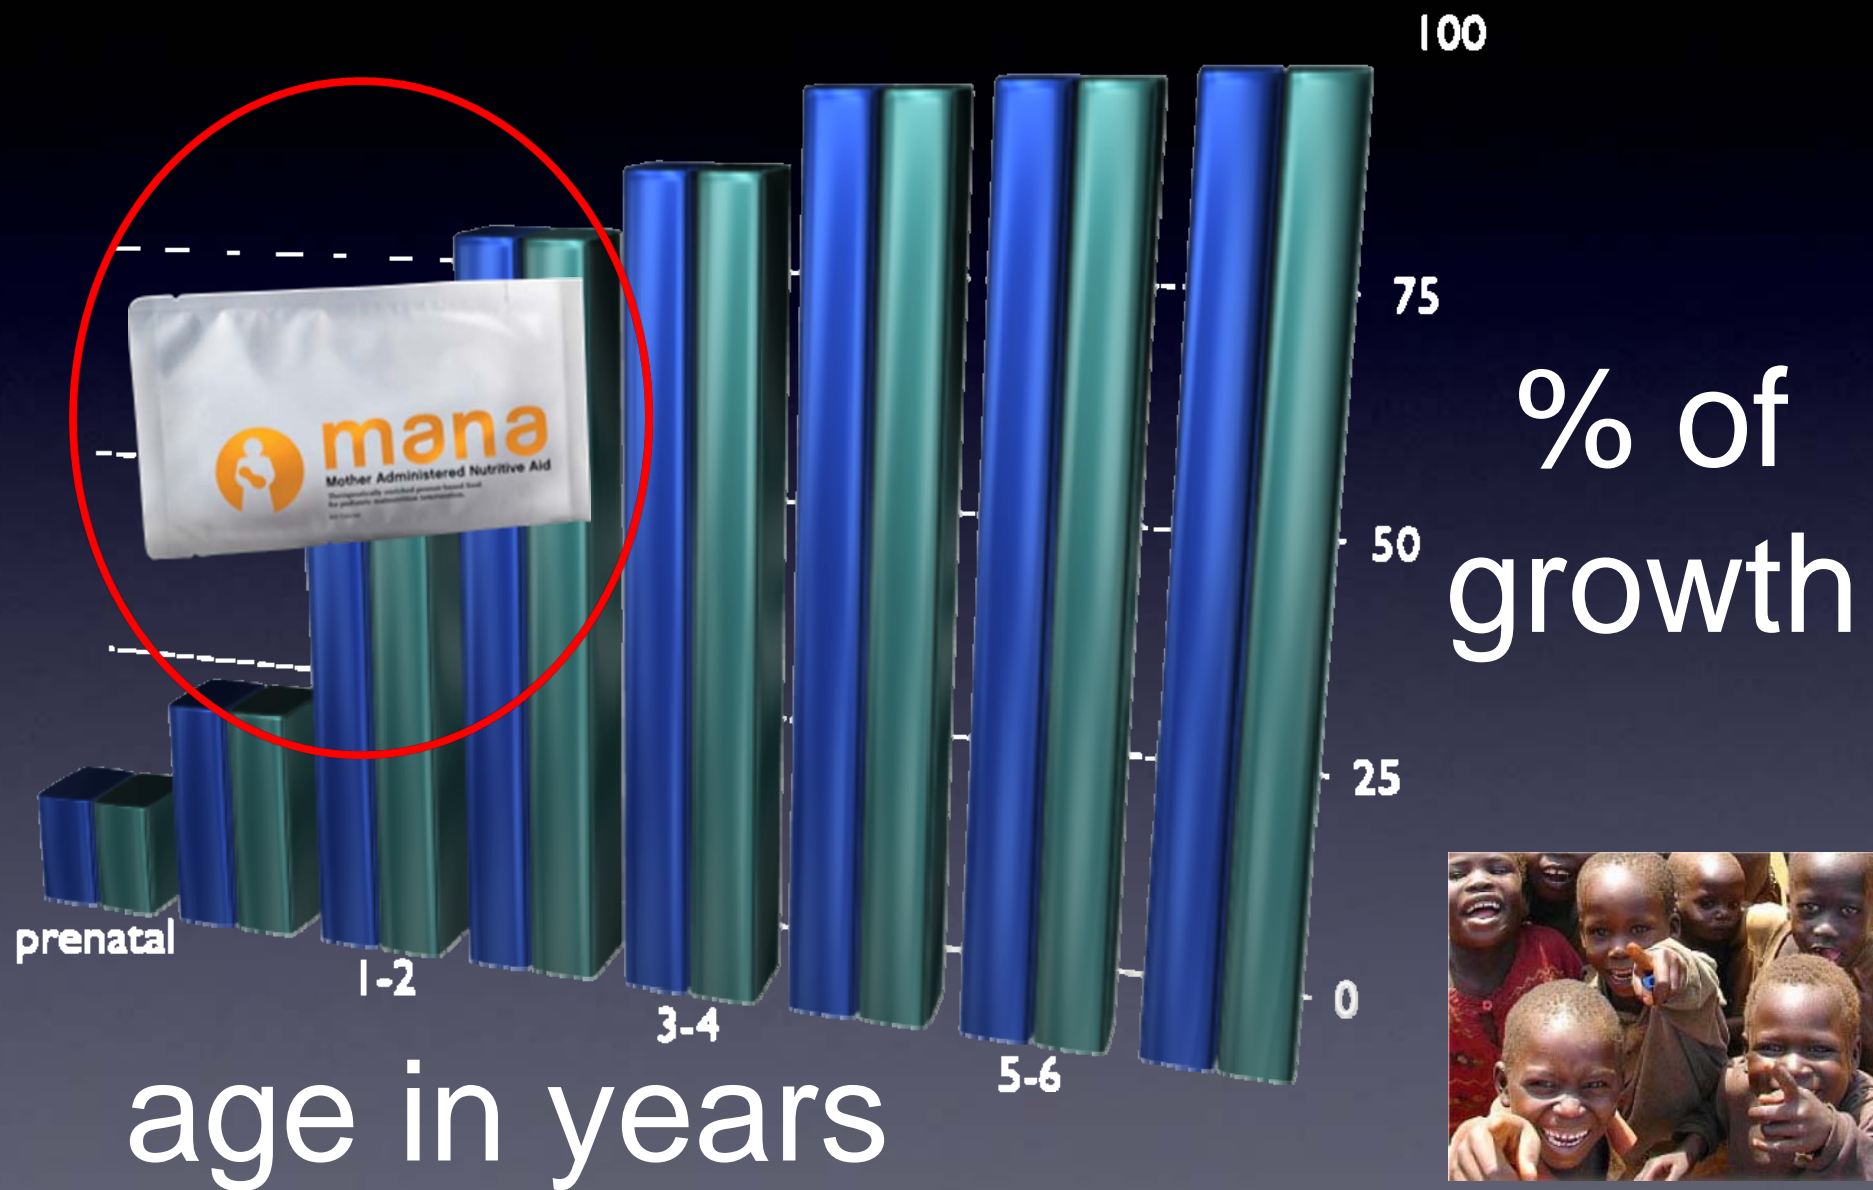

People often underestimate quite how large Africa is, so we figured we'd put it in perspective by transposing as many of the world's other countries over it as we could. As you can see, Africa is larger than China, the USA, Western Europe, India, Argentina and the British Isles... combined!

Home

coming Fall 2011 to a campus near(ish) you!

We're hitting the asphalt this fall with the Manabago. We're pinpointing college campuses across the United States in order to show you how MANA (a therapeutic food based on peanut butter) is being distributed in the developing world.

What's the Manabago? How 'bout an eBayed '71 Winnebago, reupholstered and rebuilt to bring a decadent 70's flair to the road. We've retained the pea-green appliances and the chrome trim, but added orange shag carpet and retro wallpaper. And a killer custom paint job.

We took the plunge:

Then we saw one that fit our budget on ebay and some friends kicked in to buy it. The interior is being redone in 1970's orange. It will go to college campuses starting this fall with a therapeutic feeding center in tow to show college kids how MANA is distributed.

1971 Winnebago's are super groovy!
